Principal's Message

Congratulations to the editor and yearbook staff on another successful Aurea Vineula.

As I read your yearbooks and listen to morning announcements, I am very pleased with how busy our school is. Secondary School is more than just school; all your extra-curriculars are very important.

Your yearbook is your record of those extra-curriculars. As you grow older, you will cherish this book as your personal record of your friends and activities.

Robert Purves

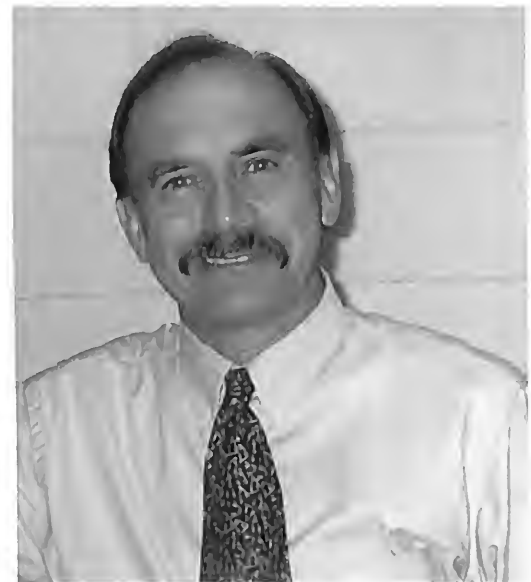

Vice-Principal's Message

Congratulations to the yearbook staff who, under the direction of Mrs. Leeson and Mr. Jensen, have once again produced a genuine treasure of memories that will be appreciated by everyone for years to come.

I would like to thank the students, Mr. Purves, and the dedicated teaching and support staff of North Lambton Secondary School who have made my first year at our school an exciting and enjoyable one.

We have had a successful year, both academically and extra-curricularly, and look forward to continued success in all school areas.

To all students who may be entering North Lambton Secondary School for the first time, returning to continue their educational experience, or who may be heading for post-secondary education or the world of work, we extend our wish for success and happiness in all you do.

Mr. Hart

Class Of '97

Class of '97 got off to a great start due to many interested people eager to help with this year's events. We started off the year with Commencement, which turned out great thanks to dedicated chair persons and their committees. The next event was semi formal with a seventies theme. Then in February the Variety Show took place and in April the Fashion show. Last but not least the prom arrived. It seemed that all the hard work had paid off.

I would like to thank all the chair persons and committees that made each of our events a success. Everyone worked hard and made some great friendships along the way. Thanks also to our staff advisors, Mrs. S. Murray and Mrs. Dawkins. Your guidance was appreciated. The Class of '97 hopes the students enjoy our beautification of the school entrance. We hope it has created pride within North Lambton for years to come!

Tina Chapman

SAC

Hello North Lambton! How's the school life treatin' ya? With me, it's not!

Hi, my name is Murray Bressette and I'm the President of Student Council here in this very exciting school of ours. I am concerned with the students of today. Well, you might ask "why?". All I can say is that our school spirit is down. When I entered North Lambton two years ago, school spirit was high. Since then, it has decreased. As Mrs. Williams would say, "decrescendo", which means to decrease. In the next few years, the school system is going to change dramatically, and I'm not sure how it will affect SAC, but it is certainly going to affect the entire school body.

At the present time we have a large number of grade nines on SAC and I hope to see many more new faces join our organization as well. I am looking forward to a good year North Lambton. Make it happen!

Murray Bressette

Grade Nine Orientation

Frosh Week

The first full week of school, September 9-13 was spent welcoming the grade 9's by filling the noon hours with fun, wacky games and contests. It also included Slave Day which gave the Nines a chance to boss and torture the grade 10 to OAC students who chose to be slaves. Many of the slaves could be heard complaining, (and perhaps bragging) about what they were forced to do.

The grade 9's were called down to the gym on the afternoon of the 13th to introduce themselves to the school and fellow students by playing a variety of games. These included a scavenger hunt, twister and leap frog. The day ended with a dance and the crowning of the Frosh King, Brandon Smith and Queen, Angela Swenson.

Commencement

Class of '96

It is the night everyone looks forward to. Proud parents, teachers and friends saw the results of all their efforts on the night of October 11, 1996.

Mrs. S. Murray reminded everyone, but especially the Grads, about the importance of family and friends who will love and support you all through your life. Lisa MacPherson had the honor of speaking to her fellow classmates reminding them of all they had gone through together and the bright future which lay before them.

A special thanks goes out to all those who helped the evening run smoothly.

Trick-or-Treat

It's that time again when spooks come out. The hallways were full of them. Everyone enjoys Halloween - the candy, the noon dance, the dressing up- and this year was no different. Everyone had an enormous amount of fun and are waiting in anticipation for next year's Halloween.

Disco ~Inferno

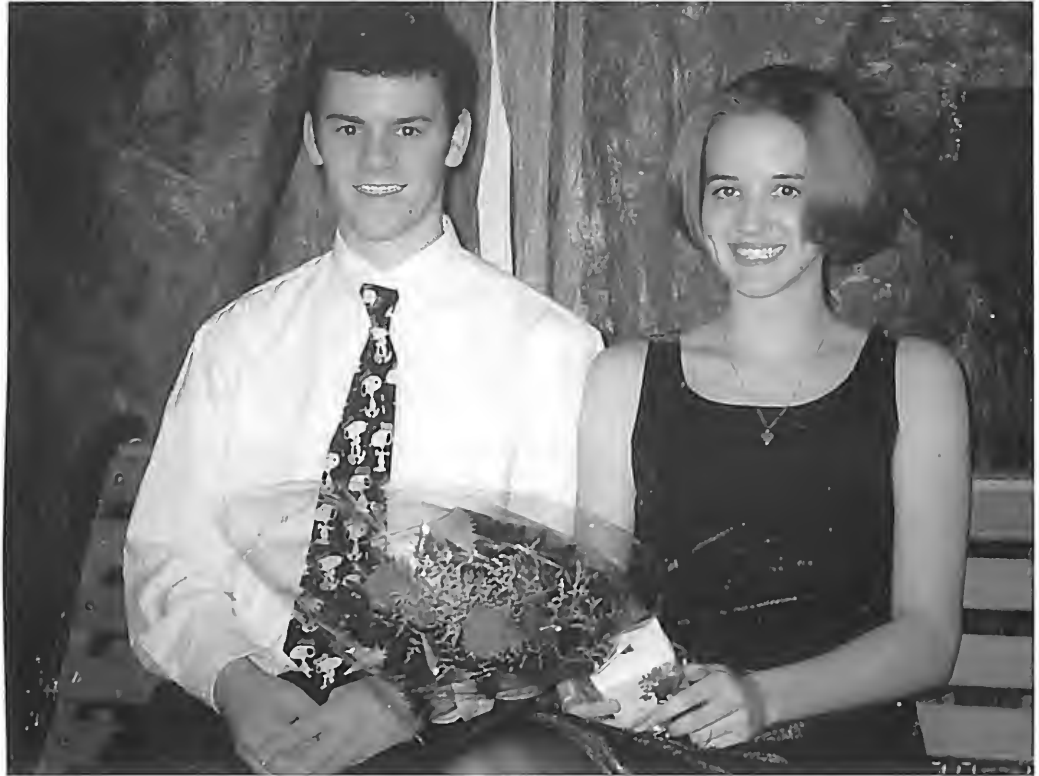

Semi Formal

North Lambton came alive with the Disco Inferno on December 13th. The disco ball was spinning, the lights were flashing and everyone was groovin' to the tunes of the 70's. Brent VanKessel (standing in for Norm Piquette who was noticably absent) and Sarah Hales were this year's Royal Snow King and Queen.

We would like to give special acknowledgement to those who were brave enough to wear the platform shoes, bell bottoms, bright colours and other interesting fashion statements from the 70's. You really turned up the heat!

P.S. Did you ever get your black lights back Cheryl?

Clockwise from top: Semi Formal King and Queen, Brent VanKessel and Sarah Hales. Two people having a good time, Jen Merritt and Amy Dawson. Geoff Jackson and Jenelle Thomas taking time to relax. Mandy Smith and a friend from another school, Jen Miller.

Clockwise from top: Our chaperons, Mr. Sands and Mr. Moergeli. Doesn't Mr. Sands look to relaxed in this outfit? A blast from the past with Jackie Marsh's outfit and her friend Alexis George. Jen Merritt and Cindy Lithgow aren't camera shy. People enjoying the semi formal. Grade nine girls, (from back) Candace Tidball, Louise Merritt, June Russel, Erin Hutton, Katie Fuller, Leah Marsh, and Jasmine Adams take time out. Disco mania with Lesly Lithgow, Adrian Tost, Lee Foster and Brett Hurlock.

Westward Ho!

Dinner Theatre, actually Pie Theatre, went really well this year. Our audience consisted of over 200 people, (a record for this event) ranging from "Toddlers" to "Elder Adults".

We had Pie Theatre this year hoping to make this production a little easier to put together for everyone. Since it was early December, we also decided to collect canned/non-perishable items, (preferably canned beans to fit our theme) for our local food drive. In total, we collected an enormous amount of canned beans and many other goods. We would like to extend thanks to everyone who donated these goods. Not only did we appreciate your kind efforts but so did the families who received the donated food.

The preparation was not all work and no play, nor was it all play and no work. For example, trying to cast 57 roles to 20 people was a lot of work but it was also a lot of fun. Everyone worked very hard to make this night a success. Best of all, we all had a lot of fun in the process.

We would like to thank the following people for a job well done: our "Fill-In" teacher, Ms. Malan Siren, us, the entire cast, and everyone else who helped make this night so successful...you all know who you are! Without all of these people this play would not have been as great as it was!

Clockwise from top left: Mark Bedard is doing his version of a cowboy. Amy Milner and Wes Monague trying to strike it rich. Before performance, Geoff Jackson, Jessie Furoy, Morgan Hudson, Jenelle Thomas and Joe Emond. Athena Ralph, Chris Murray and Lauren Willsie taking their credits at the end. Jenelle Thomas looking dazed and confused.

Philadelphia & New York

Music Trip May 1997

At 6:00 a.m., on Saturday, May 3rd, about 75 music students boarded coaches for Philadelphia. The ride was everything but enjoyable for some of us. As Mike, Adrian, and Brian found out, it would not have hurt to bring along a rainsuit and umbrella for the ride down.

On May 4th we had yet another early morning. The senior band started their performance at 8:00 a.m. This was a very successful morning with the senior band receiving an excellent and both jazz band and vocal connection receiving superior awards. We concluded the day with a tour of Philadelphia where we got the chance to run up the Rocky Steps. That night we had a banquet and dance.

The next morning we departed for New York where we saw the Empire State Building, and other places of interest. We then had a wonderful dinner at the Hard Rock Cafe. That evening some of us enjoyed watching a baseball game at Yankee Stadium (even though we missed the first few innings).

For our final day we split into groups where some of us saw the Statue of Liberty, World Trade Centre, South Sea Seaport, and much more! We concluded the night at the Imperial Theatre where we saw "Les Miz".

This was a great trip which would not have been possible if it were not for Mr. and Mrs. Williams and all of our great chaperons, and I'm sure if we had the chance we would all go back again!

Pura Vida - Costa Rica

We arrived in San Jose on Friday morning where Vanessa got her first culture shock when a guy came and kissed her window at a stop light. In San Jose we stayed at Hotel Europa. Our second stop was Hotel Punta Cocles on the Atlantic Coast, where Sam discovered how cheap the doors were when he "tripped". Our third stop was at Punta Leona on the Pacific Coast where Antia, Selena, Vanessa, and Jen got extra hospitality with ice in their beds.

Our guide Siliva taught us about the Rain Forest, Dry Forest, and Transitional Forest and the Costa Rican culture. Not only did we learn a lot about Costa Rica, but we learned a lot about each other. Some examples: Vanessa really likes it when people "CONCENTRATE" and she plans on becoming a movie star. Selena is very picky when it comes to men; they have to be born in the same decade and have to be willing to go to Disneyland for their honeymoon. Sam can sleep anywhere-including the shower when people snore. Ryan turns crazy when he drinks salt water. We also witnessed Sam and Ryan both become "Winners!" Mandy can really get around a dance floor, especially when she gets a lift from Ryan, and Mandy's way of getting free drinks is flashing the bartender. Ryann enjoys diving into her birthday cake-face first. When Jen is having a GOOD time she turns into a Japanese tourist and is very jumpy around reptiles (frogs). Mark knows how to wake up the neighbourhood when he gets locked out of his room. Anita likes to start things at the dinner table (whether it is straws or food).

If anyone travels to Costa Rica, there are some things you should know:

1. The boogie Man lives in San Jose.
2. When you scream, people scream back.
3. Stopping at stop signs is optional.
4. Cops don't mind getting their picture taken.
5. When you play with your tray tables on the airplane, it annoys the people in front of you.
6. Vanessa recommends this trip. She says it is very K-K-K- OOOOOO-LLLLLL!

What Do Students Do In Their Spare Time?

Valentine's Day

February 14th is such a romantic holiday. Everywhere you turned that Friday, you could see more flowers, chocolates and teddy bears than you ever imagined possible. The students of North Lambton enjoyed dancing with their sweethearts at the noon dance and drooling over their latest crushes. Many of them bought a box of chocolates from SAC to be sent to the homeroom of that special someone. Between cinnamon hearts, chocolate, special gifts and valentines, everyone seemed to be satisfied after Valentine's Day, 1997.

NLSS Variety Show

Clockwise from top left: Third place winners, Youth Alive. Mr. Hales was definitely center of attention during his performance. Second place winners, "These Boots Were Made for Walking" (Sara-Jane Classen, Lindsay Recker, and Janelle Thomas). Geoff Jackson, Adam Schlegel, and John Gadsden showed us they have what it takes to be stars. We all knew Ryan Doornbosch had a big mouth and this marshmallow event just proved it! Brad Devet, Tracy Logan, and Adam Willemse sent laughter throughout the gym with "The Gumble Kids" (first place winners).

The 1997 Variety show was a success! The talent was definitely at a high level. The show, if anything, was entertaining with the opening act being Roadkill (Adam Schlegel, Geoff Jackson, and John Gadsden) The M.C. Mr. Sands also added to the show with his superb juggling talent.

The winners were, "The Gumble Kids" (Tracy Logan, Marilyn Boris, Denise Rimmer, Adam Willemse, Mike Heynsbergen, Brad Devet, and Laura McKenzie). Second place went to "These Boots Were Made for Walking" (Lyndsay Recker, Janelle Thomas, and Sara-Jane Classen). Finally, third place was awarded to Youth Alive.

The participants were all excellent and overall well received by a great audience.

Creativity at its Best

Clockwise from top left: Mandy Smith can't take her eyes off the slice of pizza. Becky Smith has dish-pan hands. Chris Murphy is taking care of a baby in family studies. The grade nine class taking pride in their work. Time to taste the final product. Perfect bunny cakes baked and decorated by the grade nine family studies class. Cameron Mitchell can't wait to dig in. James Paisley admires his pizza.

Fever

The North Lambton Spring Fashion Show, "Fever" was a success. It was brought to us by the Class of '97 and other dedicated volunteers.

The models were of all ages and sizes. Staff members were very supportive, some even donating their time by modeling and by allowing their children to model as well. The clothing was very fashionable. The variety of styles was excellent, ranging from casual to prom-bridal wear. Mrs. Crich also did a wonderful job on make-up.

The success of the fashion show is due to the many dedicated people behind and in front of the scenes. We just hope Crunch is not to heart-broken that he did not get to model his birthday suit.

Hypnotist-Blair Robertson

Clockwise from top right: Concentrating hard while trying to pull their hands apart. John Gadsden is going to flex his muscles for the audience. Hypnotised into believing that their hands are tied to helium balloons, they slowly rise higher and higher. It is obvious that T.J. Struckett has been hypnotised. Jeremy Firman shows the crowd his impression of Tarzan. Too tired to continue with the show the victims of laughter decide to fall asleep.

NLSS TRIATHLON

Clockwise from top left: Tom Maguire, Jeremy Bressette, Andrew Hunt and Scott Milburn, the first place team. Michael Hodgson and Ryan Lichty also received first. Todd Vadden the speed limit is 40km. Don't you think you should slow down? Mrs. Johnson, Dwayne Reid, Shawn MacPherson, and Brent VanKessel. Peter Donald, Alice Greenbird, Dawn London, and Jackie Marsh after a long days work. Sarah Paterson speeding along. Chad Stanton and Susan Logan taking a breather. Some confused canoers.

It Takes Two

Student Life

Early in the Year

Clockwise from top right: Martina Peters and Steve Roth getting a little "closer". Jen Hall is working hard. Brian Smit, killing time. Adrian Tost and Lesly Lithgow - why does Adrian look so guilty? Two grade nines, Billy Braun and Kyle Kreeft, looking carefree. People using their spare wisely. Steve Schoonjans, Dan Street, Bill George, Jessie Furoy and Michelle Goertz.

Grade Nine Work Day

On November 6 the grade nines or "Freshman" got to go to work with their parents/host for the day. The older students may remember it as the day we were able to walk through the halls without having to dodge half of the school.

Since this is only the second year for the "Take Our Kids to Work" program, not many of us know what it is like. With that in mind a few grade nines were asked to fill out a survey. Most people drank hot chocolate all day or were taken out to lunch. Almost all of the grade nines polled found their parents' job boring.

Here are some replies when asked what they learned: "That you have to wear special steel-toed boots and a hard hat to construction sites. There's a lot more to running a beer store than what I thought. Not to throw shingles off of a roof of a building. That my Aunt actually works not sits around doing nothing."

At normal jobs most of the grade nines were bored, so when asked about future plans the words "Hollywood" and "NHL" came up quite often. Glad their imaginations weren't as bored as they were!

Clockwise from top right: Wesley Burr is hard at work at Craig's Copy. Jessie Pendlebury shows off some buns which she made at Knetchels. B.J. Seguin fills the pop cooler at Beckers (haven't you always wondered who did that?). Eric Brown at Dreamworld checking the movies.

Experiencing Co-op

Co-op (Co-operative Education) lets students get firsthand experience on working in the "Real World". Students are able to work in environments such as nursing homes and in class as a Teachers Assistant. This helps students make major career moves in the future. If you are interested you can gain first-hand information from Student Services or Mr. Muir the Co-op Director. Co-op is a worthwhile experience and it will make it easier for you when deciding on a future job (just ask any former Co-op student).

After Hours

It's Up To You

The students at North Lambton work hard during the school hours, and many of us extend that hard work into the hours after school by working at various jobs in the area. These jobs pass the time by keeping us busy, and they allow us to earn a little extra cash as well as gaining experience in the working world.

Students seem to be pretty versatile when it comes to making money and the students at North Lambton are employed in restaurants, grocery stores, bakeries, hardware stores, and many other places of business.

Keep up the good work, North Lambton!

STAFF

12:00a.m.12:00a.m.12:00a.m.

All teachers were asked which time of the day they prefer most. Depending on the time of the day chosen they might be characterized as a sensational person or possibly a person that likes to talk up a storm. (Remember this is not to be taken seriously, so have a few good laughs)!

Teachers that prefer 3:00a.m. are sophisticated, artistic, creative and polite. They are true class acts that never miss an opportunity at having a good time!

3:00a.m. 3:00a.m. 3:00a.m.

Teachers that prefer 3:00a.m. are energetic and like to accomplish tasks quickly. They often look ahead into the future and are very optimistic.

6:00a.m. 6:00a.m. 6:00a.m.

Teachers that prefer 6:00a.m. are very dependable. They are very impulsive and never blow off responsibility. People tell them that they're very intelligent but at times can be stubborn.

8:00a.m. 8:00a.m. 8:00a.m.

Teachers that prefer 8:00a.m. have an active imagination and a brain with the stamina of the Energizer Bunny. They long to be admired by everyone around them and feel a deep seated need to help the world. They also love to volunteer.

12:00p.m. 12:00p.m. 12:00p.m.

Teachers that prefer 12:00p.m are people magnets who talk up a storm, laugh a lot and hate to be alone. People say they have a heart of gold, but are easily influenced by others ideas and sometimes too eager to please.

3:00p.m. 3:00p.m. 3:00p.m.

Teachers that prefer 3:00p.m. are friendly, honest and prejudice-free. All of their students think they're just the greatest!

8:00p.m. 8:00p.m. 8:00p.m.

Teachers that prefer 8:00p.m. sometimes need to escape to gather their inner thoughts. They like to have a good time and are always seen with a smile on their face.

Yearbook Staff

Editor's Message

After many hours of hard work and dedication the "1996-1997 Aurea Vincula" is complete. This yearbook was everything but simple to put together, with this being the first year where the entire yearbook was done on the computer. Nevertheless, the reward for the time spent lies in the knowledge that we have had the honour of creating something of lasting worth.

To all the people who made this yearbook a success, a sincere thank-you. Special thanks to Mike Wenz who designed the front cover; Mr. Hoornweg for use of his printer; Alison Gallant for doing the student poll, "It's That Time Again"; Sarah Fuller for her writing expertise; the office secretarial staff for giving us the names to different faces in this book; Mr. Muir for being there when we had computer difficulties; Mrs. Lowe and her marketing class for gathering advertising; Randi Rawlings for covering the pie theatre; our staff advisors Mrs. Leeson and Mr. Jensen who continually kept a watchful eye over us; and to the wonderful yearbook staff consisting of Jen Wenz (left), Angela Marsh (middle left), Amanda Rombouts and Katherine Russell (middle right), Liz MacDonald (top right), and Janine Stott (top middle).

This yearbook will serve as a memory of friends, places, happy faces, work, and play and is a record that will forever hold fond memories of this wonderful year.

Gold Rush at Forest Silver Stick

By Phil Winch
After a decade of prospecting, Forest Minor Hockey has found a vein of gold.
And 1997 is proving to be great year for mining with two gold strikes already in the first two weeks of the year.

With the edge the team has with the raucous hacking of the home team, the Forest Silver Stick has found a vein of gold. In a word that was needed in the second period.

With the crowd well covered by the team's new white jersey, the Forest
